

TUESDAY 19 JANUARY HOME LEARNING

8.45-9.00 – Reading home book and recording in Reading Record

9.15-10.30 – INTRODUCTION – Working from Revision Slides, complete the punctuation unit we started yesterday – read the letters, decide what is wrong with the punctuation in each one and write guidance notes for each writer.

Practice Exercises 3 – Writing clauses and identifying subject, verb and object:

1. Write 5 of your own clauses
2. Copy the sentences (B) and identify the subject, object and verb.
3. CGP consolidation work + BREAKOUT ROOM READING:

YEAR 5 – CLAUSES & BASIC RELATIVE CLAUSES p.15-17. Read & refer to study notes carefully.

YEAR 6 – CLAUSES, PHRASES & SENTENCES p. 12-14. Read & refer to study notes carefully.

10.30-10.45 BREAK

10.45-12.00 MATHS - PSR POWERPOINT

Following on from our work yesterday, complete AA Fractions to Percentages Intro 3 Levels and mark your work. Choose the level you feel most comfortable with, then challenge yourself further.

Further practice – choose from AA Level 1 Recording Sheet, AA Level 2 Worksheet & AA Level 3 Worksheet. Mark work individually & feedback on TEAMS

Any remaining time could be spent looking at and attempting the SATs questions towards the end of the TGMS Powerpoint!

12.00-1.00 LUNCH

1.00-2.00 HISTORY - Revisit work completed from BBC Bitesize last week. Did you complete your note-taking? If not, complete this now. Continue working from BBC Bitesize WW1 and complete your 3rd bubble map using the heading 'How were soldiers recruited in World War One?'

Copy the main points from the 1st section.

Look at the photographs below this and describe what you can see in the 2nd image. Can you describe the mood of the soldiers in the 3rd image? Why do you think they were like this?

Watch the clip of the Pals Battalions, pausing it to allow you to make notes.

Further interesting headings are 'Conscientious Objectors', 'White Feathers' & 'How did life change?'

2.00–3.00 ART – PAUL NASH FOCUS ACTIVITIES – N.B. I am still waiting for your first art project from many of you – please send ASAP

Continue your independent work – your own internet searching for WW1 artwork by Paul Nash.

- Choose a painting you would like to recreate.
- Decide whether you would like to work in pencil/ paint/ charcoal/ other materials available or COLLAGE
- Spend time working on this, you have 1 more week to complete it and I would like photos to be sent of the completed masterpieces so that we can show them on the school website. 😊
